

Declaration of Intent
On “Prevention and Anti-Corruption”
Office of the Consumer Protection Board

Office of the Consumer Protection Board has given priority to honesty and social justice therefore defining the prevention and anti-bribery or conflict of interest policy also manage with transparency, ethics, morality and social responsibility as well as positive working culture so that people have confidence, faith and trust in the management and operation of all employees in the organization

Office of the Consumer Protection Board consists of the executives, civil servants and all government employees in the organization. Hereby announces the declaration of Intent to take a practical guidelines to achieve such a policy as follows;

1. Administrate and operate with ethics, morality and good governance also aim to the achievement of the benefit for consumers, people and the nation
2. Follow prevention and anti-corruption policy, conflict of interest, bribery and will not take any action or involve in any of corruption's forms, whether directly or indirectly
3. Anti and surveillance corruption in all its forms, do not neglect when seen or perceived any acts of corruption and ready to cooperate in the investigation also will provide fairness and protection of civil servants and government employees who report any evidence of corruption
4. Support and encourage civil servants and government employees to perform their responsibilities in a fair, transparent and equitable done with professionally and modesty
5. Create the culture and conscious mind of honesty and awareness in the organization on an ongoing basis

Release to make known to the public

Announce on the 12th January 2017

-Signature-

(Pol.Maj.Gen.Prasit Chalermvuthisak)

Secretary General of Consumer Protection Board